CORAGGIO Veronica Tomasso Cotgrove

The train was approaching Venice. Julia bit her lip for courage gazing out of the carriage window, dreading the ordeal ahead of her. She was about to hand over Four Acres her beloved home which had been in her late husband's family for generations. Julia questioned the motives of the Venetian Lawyer she was about to meet. Why would he wish to buy her home and live in rural England ? And why should she travel to Venice to meet him when the property was in Wiltshire ?

Julia was to discover the Venetian had also shown much courage to arrive at this decision. And what's more he did indeed have connections and a past history with England.
