Daily Common Cents Brian Shell

“Not enough people have common sense” is the quote that began this book. Its goal is to give you a daily dose of thoughtful and uplifting financial advice in the form of tips & tricks to help your dollars & cents stretch further for long-term self-sustainable living. It’s a book intended to be opened randomly rather than being read sequentially so its message inspires a new take-with idea you can put into practice every single day. Some of its simple inspirations tackle topics such as: networking, marketing, PR, frugal living, entrepreneurial endeavors, saving wisely, advertising, intellectual property, and achievement of spiritual balance in business and daily life for overall happiness. Take “Daily Common Cents” home today in hopes that it gives your bank account future reason to say “Hooray!”
