El extraditado. Benjamín Arellano Félix (Spanish Edition) Juan Carlos Reyna, Farrah Fresnedo
"Si para algo soy bueno, es para hacer la guerra..."

El extraditado constituye el retrato implacable sobre Benjamín Arellano Félix, jefe máximo del Cártel de Tijuana, una de las organizaciones criminales más poderosas durante la década de los noventa. Desde una perspectiva cercana, la historia muestra el testimonio directo del protagonista, siendo la primera vez que un capo mexicano ofrece su versión de los hechos desde la extradición en Estados Unidos.

Con un estilo vertiginoso, siempre exento de juicios morales, Juan Carlos Reyna despliega una impactante crónica donde la voz del personaje principal confluye con información inédita de diversos expedientes judiciales. Así, el lector va descubriendo los entresijos de varios hitos en la historia del narcotráfico, como la balacera de la discoteca Christine, el asesinato del cardenal Posadas Ocampo o la detención del propio Benjamín Arellano en Puebla.

"Tuve la impresión -afirma el autor- de que la historia de los Arellano Félix, entrecruzada con la de México en general, era una sucesión brutal de ajusticiamientos." Situado más allá de la trinchera periodística, en ese recorrido lleno de velocidad y desconcertantes giros se ponen al desnudo las entrañas del cártel: sus nexos empresariales-políticos, sus jerarquías y modos de operar. El resultado es una compleja y profunda visión sobre la acumulación de poder a través del feroz ejercicio de la violencia.

"A mí me extraditó el PAN, porque a mí el PRI no me extradita..."
