A Desert Bestiary: Folklore, Literature, and Ecological Thought from the World's Dry Places Gregory McNamee

Following the model of the medieval Latin bestiaries, Gregory McNamee has written a book at once naturalistic, folkloristic, and literary, made up of short essays on forty-three animals of the world's deserts. These essays discuss the creatures as they are and as they are imagined, and bring their natural lives and histories vividly to the page.
