It's the first summer after high school for Jen and Steve, two friends who have way more in common than meets the eye. But the idyllic summer scenario soon turns dark when a grisly murder shakes up their small town. What started out as an isolated incident turns into a terrifying whodunit mystery as the tension heightens...and the body count rises.

Jen and Steve soon find themselves in the center of the madness as murders get closer and closer to their own lives.

Solving this mystery is going to be murder.
