La montaña mágica (Edhasa Literaria) (Spanish Edition) Thomas Mann

El protagonista de la novela, Hans Castorp, un joven de 22 años, estudiante de ingeniería y de familia adinerada, va a visitar a su primo al hospital de tuberculosos de Davos, en donde su estancia, originariamente planeada para tres semanas, se convierte en una estadía de siete años. Pronto comprende que la lógica que rige en el hospital, situado a 1530 m de altitud, es distinta a la que gobierna el mundo “de los de abajo” –el mundo de los sanos-. El hospital de Davos, reino de la enfermedad y la muerte, pero también de la ociosidad y la seducción, transforman profundamente al protagonista. La montaña mágica es también una descripción de la situación social e intelectual europea, que registra los acontecimientos filosóficos, sociales y políticos de Europa que provocaron la Primera Guerra Mundial.
