This commentary on The Gospel of Thomas originally appeared-in a much-truncated form-between and November of 2003 and March of 2005, on the "Fantastic Planet" weblog. Composed as an attempt to provide a cohesive collection of thoughts and meditations on that most prevalent of Gnostic scriptures, I wanted to produce something that would be useful instead of merely interesting, something that addressed modern concerns within a Gnostic context, by a Gnostic, for people interested in Gnosticism.

Mark Mata:

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Face of the Sky and Earth can make you really feel more interested to read.
