Jack loves his daughter, Kitty, more than life itself, but she hasn't smiled since before her mother died two years ago. Kitty's homeroom teacher, Abby, often calls Jack to the school for conferences. He doesn't take her warnings very seriously in the beginning, but after hearing how bad things are at school, he gives them another thought. But the only one he can depend on is Abby herself, who also happens to be his least favorite type of woman! Is he going to have to bow his head to this strict, opinionated, overly eager teacher?!
