Wild Africa and A Job To Do is a unique tale of journeys to and inside 'old' Africa, safaris under canvas to some of the remotest places in all Africa with no facilities or maps. There are many gripping and sometimes amusing stories of encounters with elephants, lions, wild dogs, buffalo, snakes, tsetse flies, as well as with extraordinary people.

The dynamism of wild Africa is delightfully illustrated.

The author is 'the kind of white man that nobody notices, the kind who fits in, the kind who never gets rich in Africa but leaves Africa all the richer for his passage through it.' (George Alagiah 'A passage to Africa')
