Beauty and the Curse (A Short Story) K.M. Fawcett, Cathy Tully

Cursed by a jealous witch, wealthy recluse Anabel Charming is destined to grow uglier with each passing year. Only by having sex before her twenty-first birthday can this virgin's spell be broken. Yet no man will agree to sleep with the humpbacked, pockmarked, one-leg-shorter-than-the-other "Freak of Park Avenue." When handsome Chase Singleton shows up on a quest to retrieve his grandmother's long-lost talisman, which Anabel now possesses, Anabel is willing to give up the jewel...if Chase agrees to break her curse. With two days left before her chance at a normal life is lost forever, Anabel and Chase discover the reality of beauty, the power of sexual healing, and the meaning of love.
