More Holiness Give Me Robert L. Millet

Robert L. Millet points out in this very readable book that "each of us, at one time or another, wrestles with what life is all about and what it takes to be content."

"It is sobering," he continues, "that someone can possess the fullness of the gospel . . . and still feel empty and unsatisfied." Millet, professor of ancient scripture and former dean of religious education at BYU, examines the ongoing conversion process in climbing the "mountain of spirituality."
