A Patchwork Christmas (Home to heather creek) Kristin Eckhardt

Heather Creek Farm looks like a winter wonderland as Charlotte prepares to make a memorable Christmas for her three grandchildren. It's the kids' first Christmas without their mother, but despite the difficult year they've all experienced, Charlotte hopes to find solace in this season of peace and joy, trusting in her faith to see her through.

But when Sam makes plans to spend Christmas away from home, Charlotte and Bob must decide whether to let him visit his friend in California. If they let him go, will he come back? Meanwhile, Emily is drawn into battle with the pastor's daughter over the church Christmas pageant, and Christopher must face his worst fear.

As they all struggle to make it through their first Christmas together, Charlotte comes to find strength in the promise of God's gift to the world.
