Imagine having your dream become a reality, but the outcome wasn't what you expected--it was exactly the opposite! What would you do? In chasing their dreams, Ellie, Felicity and Sandra overcome tough challenges with pure determination as they follow their dreams and passions for horseback riding! In this delightful story about three horseback-riding best friends, Ellie learns that not all dreams come true the way you expect them to. These three young girls learn what it means to go after their dreams and then live with the outcome--even though it might not be what they expected. Yet no matter what happens, they will be together, forever and always, chasing their dreams.
