God's Dynamic Presence: The Co-agency of God in the Preaching Event Dr. John T Carrick

This book is an exploration of human perceptions of hearing God's voice or experiencing the Divine Discourse through preaching and through Scripture. The book is a modified version of a doctoral dissertation completed through Asbury Theological Seminary in May of 2015. The research was conducted at the American Protestant Church in Bonn, Germany, where the author serves as the senior pastor. This international congregation is composed of people from approximately 35 different nations and many denominations.
