Simon Burns is unemployed and on the verge of divorce. And he's never felt better.

Simon Burns' strained marriage gets pushed to the limit when he loses his job and reluctantly takes on the role of stay-at-home dad for his three-year-old son.

Then he meets a tight-knit trio of other dads whose strength and confidence lure him into their mix. Now, after a crazy night out with the guys, Simon has an insatiable appetite for life—for running through the woods of Central Park, making love to his wife, and downing meal after meal of rich, tender meat.

It seems that when Michael welcomed him to “the pack,” he was talking about more than male bonding...
