Sometimes, you have to leave your comfort zone.

Iggy's long time home, Crystal Cove, becomes polluted. So, Iggy and a few of his friends set out to find a clean place to live. This proves to be more challenging than they expected.

Iggy and his friends must work together to solve problems, deal with disappointment, and stay strong when things get tough.

For parents and educators: Recent research shows introverted children are often underrepresented in today's social sphere. This book gives them a character they can relate to, while also helping introverted and extroverted children understand the differences between the two personality types.
