Room 702 Paloma Aínsa

Valencia native Emma isn't looking for love when her best pals take her out on the town for her thirty-second birthday. But after just enough cocktails at their favorite bar, the trio encounters John Davies, a British movie star visiting his sister. Although Emma is not vulnerable to the thrall of celebrity, she is susceptible to John's undeniable charisma and his infamous lopsided grin. And to her surprise, what started as an innocent drink ends with an unforgettable night in room 702—a night that will change her life and link her to John forever.

As John travels the globe and Emma lives a quiet life in Spain, each does their best to forget the other. But with much more than miles between them, will the two be able to let go, or will they somehow overcome all that keeps them apart?
